

- Circle Indonesia on the map.
- Shade the Asian region in which Indonesia is situated.

- a Northern c Western
- b South-East d Central

3 Describe the location of Indonesia in relation to Australia.

4 Fill in the missing words.

More than _____ languages are _____ in Indonesia. The official _____ is _____ Indonesian, which is a _____ of Malay.

5 Tick the statements that are true.

- a Indonesia straddles the equator.
- b Indonesia has a temperate climate.
- c Jakarta is the capital of Indonesia.

6 What is a monsoonal climate?

Research time!

7 Find the definitions of latitude and longitude.

a	latitude
b	longitude

c What is the latitude and longitude of the town or city in which you live?

Inference Question

8 Tourism is an important industry for Indonesia. Why do you think the months of June to October would be more popular with tourists?
